3.2.5 Phone In Telegram

Phone In Telegram service delivers telegrams via phone followed by hard copies via international mail. Phone In Telegram service is billed on a per word basis with a flat base rate.

3.2.6 Cablegram

Cablegrams are international telegram messages that are routed to the destination country's local telegraph office and are generally delivered within 24 hours of filing. Cablegrams include telegrams routed to ships at sea whereby the ship's communications office is analogous to a destination country's local telegraph office. Cablegrams are accepted at the SENDER'S RISK. Carrier only guarantees receipt by the destination country's local telegraph office. Then, it is the responsibility of the destination country's local telegraph office to handle the delivery in a timely fashion in accordance with its own regulations and procedures. Such delivery by the destination country's local telegraph office may include postal delivery. Carrier does not receive a Report of Delivery to the addressee from the destination country. Instead, it receives only a computer confirmation of receipt by the international carrier office. Cablegram service is billed on a per word basis with a flat base rate.

3.2.7 Delayed Cablegram

Delayed Cable messages are international letter telegram messages sent with a lesser priority than Cablegrams to the destination country's local telegraph office. If letter telegram service is available in the destination country, it will be placed into the postal system for delivery. If the destination country does not have letter telegram service, the message may be transmitted with a slight delay, and delivered the same way that regular Cablegrams are delivered in that country. Delayed Cable messages are accepted at the SENDER'S RISK. Carrier only guarantees receipt by the destination country's local telegraph office. Carrier does not receive a Report of Delivery to the addressee from the destination country. Instead, it receives only a computer confirmation of receipt by the international carrier office. Delayed Cable service is billed on a per word basis with a flat base rate.

International Resale Common Carrier Service

3.2.8 Canadian Mailed Telegram <sup>sm</sup> (Postalgram ®)

Canadian Postalgram ® messages are generally delivered the following day (except Sunday) by the Canadian Postal Service, provided they are filed in time to be transmitted prior to the deadline time. Next day postal delivery is subject to the post office being open. Some post offices may be closed on Saturdays. Postalgram ® service is billed per 35 words with a flat base rate. Segments of less than 30 words are charged as 30-words.

3.2.9 Dictated Fax <sup>sm</sup> (Faxgram <sup>sm</sup>) Canadian

Dictated Fax <sup>sm</sup> Services transmit dictated faxes <sup>sm</sup> to recipient fax machines. Fax transmissions are billed per 30 words with a flat base rate. Segments of less than 30 words are charged as 30-words.

3.2.10 Political Messages

Political Messages service generally delivers messages to special terminals (if available) of elected officials, usually within 2 to 5 hours. If special terminals are not available, messages will generally be delivered through the mail. Not available in all countries.

3.2.11 Dictated Fax <sup>sm</sup> (Faxgram <sup>sm</sup>) (Electronic Transmission)

Dictated Fax <sup>sm</sup> services are Dictated Fax <sup>sm</sup> messages that are transmitted internationally to recipient fax machines. Dictated Fax <sup>sm</sup> services transmit Dictated Faxes <sup>sm</sup> to recipient fax machines. Fax transmissions are billed per 30 words with a flat base rate. Segments of less than 30 words are charged as 30 words. Faxes longer than 1 minute to transmit are subject to an additional $10.00 per minute surcharge.

3.2.12 Fax Transmitting and Receiving (Over the Counter)

Fax Transmitting and Receiving services transmit and receive at terminals of Carrier and recipient fax machines. In the United States or Canada, faxes can be delivered to the addressee the same day by Carrier, usually within two to five hours. Fax Transmitting and Receiving service is billed per page transmitted.

3.2.13 International Mailed Telegram (Postalgram ®)

International Postalgram ® messages are generally delivered by the destination country's local telegraph post office the next business day. International Postalgram ® messages are accepted at the SENDER'S RISK. Carrier only guarantees receipt by the destination country's local telegraph or post office or Carrier's foreign correspondent. Then, it is the responsibility of the recipient office to handle the delivery in a timely fashion in accordance with its own regulations and procedures. Carrier does not receive a Report of Delivery to the addressee from the destination country. Instead, it receives only a computer confirmation of receipt by the destination country's local telegraph or post office or Carrier's foreign correspondent. International Postalgrams® are subject to availability of the destination country's local telegraph or post office or Carrier's foreign correspondent. International Postalgram® service is billed per 30 words. Segments of less than 30 words are charged per 30 words.

3.2.14 Telex

Worldwide Telex service provides facilities for the handling of two-way overseas telegraph communications between various locations of Carrier and the international locations identified in Section 5 of this Tariff. Worldwide Telex messages are generally delivered to telex terminals within two hours. Telex sending service is billed either on a per word basis with a flat base rate or on a per minute basis (40 words constitutes one minute) for lengthy messages. Telex messages billed at the per minute rate are billed for a minimum of three minutes so that Telex messages that are less than three minutes in length and billed at the per minute rate are billed for three minutes of time. With per minute billing, fractions of one minute are rounded up to the next whole-minute increment. Each completed transmission is timed starting when an out dial facility is seized. Telex receiving service is billed one flat rate. All completed transactions will be billed.

3.2.15 Military Message

Military Message service provides a special rate for messages covered by this Tariff that are delivered to American military personnel stationed around the world. Messages are delivered from points within the United States to all United States bases and War Zones. Military Message service is billed on a per word basis with a flat base rate.

3.2.16 E-Mail

E-Mail is an international electronic mail service. E-mail service is billed per 30 words with a flat base rate. Segments of less than 30 words are charged per 30 words.

3.2.17 Special Announcement Telegram<sup>sm</sup>
